1. What are the elements of actively obeying the Great Commission today?
2. How is the church obeying the Great Commission of Jesus today?
3. What is the role of the church in identifying those who have been especially equipped by God to serve him in a full time capacity?
4. What costs are associated with actively seeking to send people out to serve the Lord as ambassadors for Jesus?
5. The local church at Jerusalem (Acts 11:19-26) sought to be a blessing to other believers, how so? As a follow-up question, how can our church do likewise?
6. Are you a full-time servant of God? How so?
7. The leadership of the church at Antioch practiced the spiritual disciplines of prayer and worship. How can we make these two disciplines an active part of our lives? What are the benefits from doing so?
8. What are the characteristics of a person who has dedicated their self to serving the Lord?
