“The Uniqueness of the Gospel”
Acts 17

1. In the marketplace of ideas, what makes the message of the Gospel unique?
2. Why do you think Paul always began at synagogues in his mission of sharing the Gospel?
3. In our call to share the Gospel with our friends and neighbours, how would you begin that conversation?
4. From your observation, why do you think people in our culture have stopped attending church?
5. How would you encourage a young person who is thinking about leaving the faith, not to do so?
6. What can you point to in our fellowship of believers that makes it different from any other social club or organization?
7. The Bereans were known for examining the Scriptures to test the teaching of Paul, how can we do that in our day and time?
8. In the multi-cultural, multi-faith world that we live in, what sets the claims of Jesus stand out above the rest.
