

Growth Group Questions
Acts 22:30-23:11

Take Courage

1. In Paul's specific case, why would courage be necessary? Acts 23:11
 - a. Why is courage required when it comes to evangelism?
2. In Paul's discourse before the Sanhedrin, he delineated the hope he had because of Christ. What hope does Christ give to those who trust in him?
3. How does Paul use the argument that broke out between the ruling classes of the Jews to point to the hope had in Christ?
4. In our culture, what "hope" are people running to or clinging to? How can Christ fill that void in their lives?
5. What is the most courageous thing you have ever done or been asked to do?
6. Share a situation when you could sense the Lord standing by you?
7. What is the difference between the biblical principle of hope and the "wishful thinking" the world offers?
8. How can we encourage one another to "take courage"?