1. What “jaw-dropping” experience have you had? What made that moment so special?
2. Considering Paul’s past, what was it about the Gospel that was so amazing to him?
3. Why was the Jewish Leadership so determined to silence Paul’s preaching?
4. Do you remember what your life was like before Christ “interrupted you”?
5. How should the church take seriously the responsibility to share the Gospel?

What would you do?

6. As we share our faith with others, what can lend credibility to our faith story?
7. How does the Gospel bring a sense of awe to our lives?
8. Have you gotten over the fact that God sent Jesus to rescue you from sin and its consequences? How should that inform how you should live your life?
